

4th Grade Unit1 Week3

Long e and o

Generalization - Long e is sometimes spelled ee or ea: sweet, each. Long o is sometimes spelled oa or ow: throat, rainbow.

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1. sweet | - having a sugar-based flavor |
| 2. each | - every individual one |
| 3. three | - the number between two and four |
| 4. least | - the smallest amount |
| 5. freedom | - absence of coercion or restriction |
| 6. below | - under or beneath |
| 7. throat | - the tube down from the back of the mouth |
| 8. float | - inflated bag |
| 9. foam | - clusters of tiny bubbles that forms on liquid |
| 10. flown | - moved itself through the air |
| 11. greet | - to address or welcome upon arrival |
| 12. season | - to add ingredients that give food flavor |
| 13. croak | - deep, hoarse cry or noise |
| 14. shallow | - having or showing very little depth |
| 15. eagle | - large bird of prey with a hooked beak |
| 16. indeed | - without a doubt or with certainty |
| 17. rainbow | - an arch of colors that appear in the sky |
| 18. grown | - got bigger in size |
| 19. seaweed | - any of numerous marine algae or plants |
| 20. hollow | - empty or carved out inside |

Parent Signature _____