

4th Grade Unit4 Week3

Consonant Digraph /sh/

Generalization: the digraph /sh/ can be spelled si, ti, and ci: mansion, lotion, special.

1. nation-a community of people under one government
2. special-unique, extraordinary, regarded with affection
3. lotion-a thick substance used on skin for moisture
4. mansion-a very large residence
5. precious-greatly loved or treasured
6. creation-something made, the act of making
7. vacation-a trip or time for pleasure or relaxation
8. tension-mental anxiety, anticipation or excitement
9. especially-unusually or markedly
10. motion-the act of moving
11. tradition-a belief, custom or way of doing something that has existed for a long time
12. gracious-kind and courteous
13. extension-an added part in length, size or time
14. addition-increase in the number of people or things
15. caution-careful attention or forethought
16. official-something coming from an authority, genuine
17. solution-the answer to a problem
18. suspension-period when one isn't allowed to do something
19. politician-a person who seeks public office
20. portion-amount, share, allotment or part

Parent Signature _____